

April 2017 Classes

Wednesday, April 5th and Friday, April 7th

6:30pm – 8:30pm

SHATTERED GLASS MOSAIC CLASS

Heike Winfield of Belhaven will return to teach an exciting class using broken glass, marbles, and a variety of other materials to create a framed mosaic picture on glass, sealed in epoxy and ready to display in a window or show off on a shelf. Using a template of your choice, you will create a lasting work of art in this 2-evening class. (You are welcome to bring any materials of your own.)

Total cost is $58 and includes everything for a finished piece.

A word of caution: you will be handling glass with sharp edges, gloves are recommended.

Saturday, April 8th

12:00 – 2:00pm

COLD PROCESSED SOAP MAKING CLASS

Instructor and expert soap maker, Susan Woodward, owner of Mermaid Tales, Elizabeth City will take you step-by-step through the cold processing method of soap making. Her ingredients will include lye (safety glasses and gloves are required and provided), a variety of oils (premixed) and Lavender oil for fragrance. Students will first be instructed on each step (handouts with resources and tips included) and then given the opportunity to make their own. They will then take home the 1 lb. batch (in a mold) to set overnight to harden. Cutting the finished bars will be demonstrated during the class.

This class is limited to 5, but more classes may be scheduled on demand.

Total cost is $30 and includes all materials.

Saturday, April 22ND

10:00am – 1:00pm

CARD MAKING CLASS

Sending or receiving a hand -made card is a rare treat these days, but you can brighten someone's day by learning how to make personalized cards in this fun class led by Anita Price. She has a wealth of information and supplies to help you make 6 – 12 special memories to keep or send away. Light refreshments will be provided, compliments of the instructor. Other pleasant surprises are in store.

Maximum number of students will be held to 10, so don't delay and sign up now. We hope to get her back in the fall for Christmas cards!

Total cost is $35.00 with all materials included.
