At the same time a candidate files notice of candidacy, a candidate shall file a statement answering the following question: "Have you ever been convicted of a felony?" A felony conviction need not be disclosed if the conviction was dismissed as a result of reversal on appeal or resulted in a pardon of innocence or expungement. A prior felony conviction does not preclude holding elective office if the candidate's rights of citizenship have been restored.

Have you ever been convicted of a felony? Yes

A candidate who answers "yes" to the question shall provide the name of the offense, the date of conviction, the date of the restoration of citizenship rights, and the county and state of conviction. Again, any felony conviction(s) that has been dismissed because of reversal on appeal or resulted in a pardon of innocence or expungement does not need to be disclosed.

Offense	Date of Conviction	Date Citizenship Rights Restored	County of Conviction	State of Conviction

I affirm that the information disclosed here is true, correct, and complete to the best of my knowledge.
