PUBLIC NOTICE

Public Meeting to Present Ocracoke Tourism Promotion Research

The Hyde County Office of Planning and Economic Development will hold a public meeting Thursday, February 12, 2015 at 7:30 p.m. in the Ocracoke Community Center to publicly present findings of a research study on Ocracoke's tourism promotion.

The study analyses the current promotion efforts paid through occupancy tax funds and suggests potential plans for improvement. The public is invited to attend. Public comment is specifically sought from people involved with the lodging industry, tourism promotion, and the Ocracoke Civic & Business Association. A copy of the study including appendix is available here: http://hydecountync.gov/departments/planning_and_economic_development.php
