MATTAMUSKEET NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE

Mattamuskeet National Wildlife Refuge was established in 1934. The Refuge consists of 50,180 acres of open water, marsh, timber and croplands. The refuge's main feature is the shallow 40,000 acre Lake Mattamuskeet, the largest natural lake in North Carolina.

Mattamuskeet Refuge is renowned for waterfowl. Widely recognized as one of the best birding sites in North Carolina, the refuge is especially popular in the fall and winter, when hundreds of thousands of migratory birds, including a wide variety of ducks, geese and swans migrate to Lake Mattamuskeet and surrounding areas.

Although noted primarily for its waterfowl, Mattamuskeet Refuge also provides habitat for many other species including wading birds, shorebirds, and birds of prey like the osprey and bald eagle. Mammals such as white-tailed deer, bobcat, river otter, black bear, and the endangered red wolf also find refuge here. A variety of amphibians including frogs, toads, and salamanders are common throughout the refuge.

A new Visitor Center/Administrative Office and Maintenance Facility were completed in 2011. The new Visitor Center/Administrative Office opened to the public in August. New interpretive displays are being constructed for the Visitor Center and hopefully will be installed within a few months.

The Mattamuskeet Refuge Visitor Center/Administrative Office is open to the public Monday through Friday, 7:30 AM to 4:00 PM, except on holidays. The Refuge is open seven days a week. All of the Refuge is closed to public access from sunset to sunrise except for the Highway 94 Causeway which remains open at night.

The Refuge is located approximately 70 miles east of Washington, North Carolina. The Visitor Center/Administrative Office entrance road is located off Highway 94, one and one-half miles north of U.S. 264 between Swan Quarter and Engelhard. The refuge address is: Mattamuskeet NWR, 85 Mattamuskeet Road, Swan Quarter, North Carolina 27885. Phone number: 252/926-4021. Website: www.fws.gov/mattamuskeet.

Craigslist Scammers

Please Note that many local companies on the Outer Banks have also been scammed in a similar fashion in that details about rental homes have been copied from legitimate websites and then posted on Craig's list. The ads have U.S. Contact Information (usually Florida numbers, but this is a collection port to send the money to real scammers in other countries).

Please help spread the word to use caution when renting homes or buying property on Craig's List using guidelines as are included in the editorial below.

Craigslist Warning: Selling a Home? Be Sure Scammers Don't "Rent" It First

Planning to sell your home soon?

If so, keep an eye on Craigslist.com after you (or your realtor) place an ad in the local paper or post information on the Internet's Multiple Listing Service (MLS).

Otherwise, your property may become the "bait" that lures unwitting victims into forking over hundreds or thousands of dollars to scammers.

In a number of recent cases, scammers have taken information from real estate ads placed in local newspapers -- and also scanned photos of the houses for sale -- and posted classified ads on Craigslist.com that have convinced potential renters that THEY (the scammers) were renting these houses.

In some instances, scammers wanted just a little money from a LOT of people. They exchanged emails with victims, claiming they (the fake landlords) were outside the country. Then, they asked the victims to send small sums to receive copies of the house keys, so the victims can walk through the premises themselves.

In other cases, scammers actually gained access to vacant houses, gave tours to the prospective renters, and accepted deposits for renting the properties.

Craigslist.com, the world's largest online classified ad service, offers the following advice to people visiting them:

"Deal locally with folks you can meet in person.

"Never wire funds via Western Union, Money Gram or any other wire service -- anyone who asks you to do so is a scammer.

"Fake cashier checks and money orders are common, and banks will cash them and then hold you responsible when the fake is discovered weeks later.

"Craigslist is not involved in any transaction, and does not handle payments, guarantee transactions, provide escrow services, or offer 'buyer protection' or 'seller certification.'"

You can find more information on avoiding scams from Craigslist on their site.

Here is information on a similar related scam: the overpayment scam.

Finally, Craigslist is obviously not the only place this scam can occur. Be wary of any listing anywhere that has these telltale signs.

OCRACOKE SOCK HOP

This year's Sock Hop will be on 11 February (Saturday) at the same location, the Community Center on Ocracoke; same time (7 to 9 P.M) with Martin Garrish again leading the Backin' To The 50's Band. We plan to release our new CD, Backin' To The 50's Vol. 2, at the Hop.

- > There will be some opportunities to volunteer that will get you in free. We need judges for the these contests: Dance, Hula Hoop, Costume and Look-a-like plus a supervisor(s) of the ballot jars for King and Queen of the Hop. You can participate in all the festivities while you are performing your judging (we need three judges for each contest). If you won a prize last year, would you be willing to be a judge this year so we can spread the prizes around?
- >
- > Last year's prize winners were:
- > King Of The Hop--Brian Carter/Queen Of The Hop--Jamie Funnell Carter
- > Best Outfit (Male)--Philip Howard (beatnik) Best Outfit (Female)--April Trueblood (Valentine Gal)
- >
- > Best Look-a-like (Male)--Jackie Willis (Roy Parsons) Best Look-a-like (Female)--Susan Dodd (Olivia Newton John)
- > Hula Hoop Contest: 1st--Dalton Kalna 2nd--Jennifer Kidwell 3rd--Katy Mitchell
- > Dance Contest: 1st---Joe Chesnut and Maddie Payne 2nd---Brett and Casey Barley 3rd---Harley Barker and Susie Kennedy
- > Another volunteer opportunity is the soda fountain where we will be making and serving free ice cream sundaes, coke floats, brown cows, soft drinks and popcorn. Last year Donald and Merle Davis manned the soda fountain but they will be in Utah at a storytelling festival this year. We'll organize two one-hour shifts so you can enjoy the dancing, too.
- >
- > Please spread the word to everyone you know about the cool dress-up opportunity and dancing fun that the Sock Hop will be! Also please put the event on any and all internet outlets you have access to.
- >
- > Thank you for making last year such a success and we're looking forward to great memories this year.

ECB Names Gordon Smith as Vice President and Triangle Area Regional Manager for Mortgage Services

Cary, N.C. – Pamm Jones, Senior Vice President Mortgage Services for The East Carolina Bank (ECB), announced that Gordon Smith has been named Vice President and Triangle Area Regional Manager for Mortgage Services. “Gordon’s people skills and vast knowledge of our industry make him a perfect fit to build a team in our new Triangle Area,” said Jones. “His goals align perfectly with ECB’s commitment to excellence.”

Smith brings to ECB over 19 years of experience in the financial services, residential mortgage, and homebuilder affiliated industries providing extensive experience to navigate today’s challenging landscape. Within the residential mortgage industry he has held various sales and marketing positions in the mortgage insurance (PMI, GE Capital), wholesale lending (Coastal Mortgage Group), homebuilder affiliated (BuildNet, Toll Brothers) and retail lending (Gateway Bank, Wells Fargo) sectors. “I am excited to join the team at East Carolina Bank,” stated Smith. “With their passion and commitment to service for the customers and communities they serve, ECB is well positioned for growth. I look forward to meeting the challenges of assisting the bank with their growth into new markets.”

Smith holds a bachelor’s degree in Business Management from NC State University and has completed the School of Mortgage Banking, Course I from San Francisco State University. His strong drive towards civic sponsorship has resulted in membership and leadership positions with the Mortgage Bankers of the Carolinas (MBAC), North Carolina Association of Mortgage Professionals (NCAMP) and the National Association of Homebuilders (NAHB). Smith currently lives in Cary, NC with his wife Terri and children, Morgan and Wesley.

2012 Hyde County Waterfowl Banquet

Recently I had a nice surprise when I found out that at this years Hyde County Waterfowl Banquet. X Factor’s television Country Music Star Tim Cifers would be the entertainment on the 13th of January. The crowd reflected it too. There was well over 200 people there. Tim Cifers was available to sign autograph pictures and meet all the various people there. Tim is a very good friend of Hyde County Waterfowl Director and past President, Randy Hignite. Randy met Tim through a mutual friend Jim Mac Donald (a song writer) two and a half years ago one night when Randy’s band (The Mighty Saints of Soul) were playing at Crossroads in the Wake Forrest area. He (Tim) came back to the bands green room and introduced himself while they were on break and they’ve written a couple of songs together! Tim sang around ten songs and everyone enjoyed his music hollering and clapping.

The Hyde County Waterfowl Banquet was a huge success this year! Thanks to everyone who participated in and attended this event!
