Art Class Announcement

Come see what Impressionism is really all about in these value packed workshops in oil painting!

Along with a college level education in art history, Fine Arts Colorist Mark Hierholzer will teach you how to recognize and use the full color spectrum of nature in these comprehensive workshops which include morning seminar and demonstration. Weather permitting, painting session will be en Plein Air land/waterscape painting.

An important aspect of the Impressionist painting is the appearance of quickly shifting light on surfaces, transporting the viewer into the experience unique to the moment.
